NHS

March and rally in central London
Saturday 3 November

Join us on the march and rally in central London on Saturday, 3rd November 2007 and show your support for the NHS, a world class public service that takes care of our health and gives us all peace of mind.

Help us campaign to defend the NHS and to celebrate its founding principles. Join the demonstration and send a strong message to the government that cutting essential services at local hospitals is not acceptable.

- 11am: Assemble at Temple Place, Victoria Embankment, London
- Noon: March through Westminster (will take approx one hour)
- 1pm: Rally in Trafalgar Square
- 1.30-4.30pm: Speakers and entertainment in the Square

Free coach departing from the PRH at 9am
